SPAIN BREAKS WITH VATICAN.

At the conclusion of a conference at San Sebastian, Spain, yesterday evening, between King Alfonso and Premier Canalejas, it was announced that Marquis Emilio de Ojeda, Spanish ambassador to the Vatican, had been recalled.

At the same time the opinion was expressed that a rupture with the Vatican was inevitable. Senor Canalejas told the king that the government could not accept the conditions of the Vatican's last note and that the Vatican would be so informed.

Premier Canalejas will continue his anti-clerical programme, counting upon the support of King Alfonso.

Ominous reports are received following the publication of the news that a rupture between the Spanish government and the Vatican appears imminent.

At San Sebastian, Don Jaime, the pretender, has issued a manifesto in which he says that he will lead the Carlists in the battle, which he intimates may be coming soon and congratulating them on their loyalty to the pope.

The Vatican has declared that the negotiations looking to a revision of the concordat cannot be continued until the imperial decree permitting non-Catholic societies to display the insignia of public worship has been withdrawn. Canalejas has responded that he cannot cancel the programme which the government has announced.

The general situation is complicated by the unrest among the miners in the Catalan provinces and the occasional clashes between the Catholic and non-Catholic elements throughout the country.

Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercises or injury, is quickly relieved by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment is equally valuable for muscular rheumatism, and always affords quick relief. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

NEGRO MURDERER HANGED.

John Junkin, the negro convicted of the murder of Clara Rosen, a white girl, who was killed while returning from choir practice in Ottumwa, Iowa, in February, 1908, was hanged yesterday in the penitentiary at Fort Madison. The negro made the following statement through Father Zeizer, of Fort Madison, the priest who had been with him several hours prior to his death:

"I, John Junkin, now on the point of death, desire most sincerely to obtain mercy and forgiveness from God for all my sins. I like to ask forgiveness from my mother for the sorrow I have caused her and I earnestly and sincerely ask forgiveness from the parents and relatives and friends of Clara Rosen for the pain I have brought upon them. May God have mercy on my soul."

The execution was a ghastly one because of the failure of the noose to work properly, and for nearly 20 minutes after the drop fell Junkin writhed and struggled until he strangled to death.

The murder of Miss Rosen, who was a singer in a church choir, was a particularly brutal one, and after his arrest Junkin narrowly escaped lynching.

WOMAN MURDERED.

Enraged because he had been denied admittance to a house where a woman lived upon whom he had been forcing his attentions, George Coyle, 38 years old, in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday morning shot and killed the landlady, Mrs. Edward Hoeflinger, and wounded Mrs. Dora Stoner Wilson. Coyle then shot himself in the head and will die.

A month ago Coyle was arrested for annoying Mrs. Wilson, who is 31 years old, but he continued to bother her, his friends say. Mrs. Hoeflinger, with whom Mrs. Wilson roomed, was ironing in the kitchen yesterday morning when Coyle called at the rear door. She refused to let him pass the door. Without a word of warning Coyle pulled a revolver and fired once at Mrs. Hoeflinger. The woman, bleeding from a wound in the breast, rushed out of doors, falling on her face in the grass. She died almost instantly.

Mrs. Wilson was in bed in a front room on the first floor. She screamed and ran upstairs when she heard the shots. Coyle followed her up the stairs, but she eluded him by going into another room. While he was looking for her in another room Mrs. Wilson slipped down the steps. She had almost reached the bottom step when Coyle caught sight of her. He shot twice. One bullet took effect in the right side and the other bullet mangled the fingers on her right hand.

Coyle made no attempt to follow Mrs. Wilson. Instead he walked back to a room overlooking the yard where Mrs. Hoeflinger lay dead. It is believed that Coyle was looking from the window at the body of his victim when he fired the bullet into his own head.

RODE YOUNG WOMEN ON RAILS.

Because of jealousy on the part of the girls of the district, their two dangerous rivals, Nina Barrywell, aged 21, and Laura Gripper, aged 20, of Vandergrift Heights, near Pittsburg, Pa., were attacked Thursday evening by a band of young men. Their clothing was stripped from them, and they were given a coat of tar and feathers, after which they were ridden on a rail through part of the town and thrown off, when they fled with the fleetness of a hare. They have not since been seen.

The two girls came to the district about eight months ago, claiming that they were orphans and that they had determined to live in bachelor quarters. Being vivacious and unusually pretty they soon succeeded in winning away from the other girls their beaux. It took six months for the forsaken ones to hit upon a decided plan of revenge, but the one they put into execution was a success.

One of the girls was led to relate all that was transpiring at the bachelor residence, and this was told to the other girls. The young men were then summoned and informed that the "bachelor" girls had told "every thing" when the abashed youths determined to get even.

Getting the two "bachelor" girls to promise to meet two of their number near the town Thursday evening, the girls were set upon by the band of enraged youths, who maltreated them and compelled them to flee for their lives.

A report of the affair was made to the police, who are trying to locate the missing girls as well as to ascertain who were responsible for the outrage.

Will Intercept Expedition.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, July 30.—The government was informed yesterday that the British government has sent a cruiser from Belize to intercept an expedition which left British Honduras to aid former President Bonilla in his effort to recover control of this country.

The cruiser will go to Cayes, Zapotillo, where the expedition is supposed to be awaiting an opportunity to effect a landing.

The news brought delight to government officials, as it is believed that the interception of the expedition will put an end to the Bonilla revolution.

The legless body of a man was taken from the river at the Maid of the Mist landing on the Canada side at Niagara Falls, yesterday morning. The man had dark hair and a brown mustache. There was no clothing on the body, which was badly decomposed.

LARGE YIELD.

On eleven-twelfths of an acre of land, Mr. Ruben Fultz, living near Timberville, harvested a wheat crop which yielded forty-nine bushels and fifty pounds at the machine, or fifty-three bushels at the mill. This is probably the largest wheat yield for the acreage in the Valley of Virginia.

Mr. Fultz, driver of the same section, threshed a crop which averaged 31 bushels to the acre.—[Harrisonburg Times.]

Favors Home Rule.

London, July 30.—Home rule not only for Ireland, but for other parts of the united kingdom, is believed today to be foreshadowed by the after dinner speech of Irish Secretary Birrell, in which he declared that "the dragging of Ireland in the wake of England was a stupid piece of business."

"We ought to have truly an imperial parliament in England," Birrell concluded, "free of all local details." This is being generally interpreted as meaning that the administration favors home rule for various parts of the empire, patterned after the state legislatures of America, under an "imperial parliament," corresponding to the American Congress.

Rioting at the Williamsburg plant of the American Sugar Refining Company, where 1 man was killed and twenty-five were injured Thursday, was renewed yesterday. Shots were fired but no one was hurt.

Not Aiding Either Candidate.

New York, July 30.—Theodore Roosevelt yesterday took occasion to reiterate his statement that he is not aiding any candidates for nomination in the republican party, in a statement regarding the rival candidacies of Philip Stanton and Hiram Johnson for governor of California. Stanton is the republican nominee, and Johnson an independent candidate. The latter is being boomed by Gifford Pinchot, which fact has given rise to statements in the California press that Johnson was also Roosevelt's candidate.
